HIGHLAND DAY 2014

On October 4, 2014, from 11 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., the Highland Business Association & the Greater Highland Crossroads Association will celebrate all that is unique about the quaint crossroads community of Highland, Maryland. This festive day brings together old-time neighbors and new friends to enjoy the activities and diverse offerings of merchants, exhibitors, and artisans. Enjoy jovial entertainment, a variety of food and beverage, including a beer garden, and a focus on fun things for the family.

Complete with Halloween parade starting at noon and a Halloween costume contest from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the APL/FCU tent.

For more information, please visit here.

FALL FESTIVAL AT THE CONSERVANCY

Come out to the Howard County Conservancy this Sunday, October 5th from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. to celebrate the beginning of fall! Visitors can listen to blue grass music, watch blacksmiths ply their trade, and marvel at the history of this three-century-old farm. Goats, chickens, a diamondback terrapin and a snake will fascinate the youngsters. The resident Barred Owl will also visit with attendees. Other festivities include children's crafts, pony rides and hay rides. Food is available to purchase.

$10 per car - carpool with your neighbors!

We're on the Web!
